RANCHI: Governor Droupadi Murmu on Friday asked students of the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Ranchi to not only focus on accumulating wealth but also to contribute towards growth of underprivileged people in the society.

Addressing the ninth foundation day of the institute at Ramdayal Munda Kala Bhawan in Ranchi, Murmu said, "Your success in your jobs should not only about how much wealth you create for yourself but also how much you contribute towards the growth of the underprivileged people in the society. If each one of you help at least one such person, it will make for a big difference in his life."

Established in December 2009, IIM Ranchi is the ninth IIM in India and second in east India. The institute currently

Governor Murmu also asked the students to develop values and a winning spirit to achieve success in the competitive world.

"In this fast growing competitive world, it is essential to cultivate the winning spirit, besides developing the right skills to sustain and grow in any organization. We also need to guide
