

New batch of IIM-R students inducted, two-day online workshop marks event

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Ranchi: A two-day online workshop on principles of hard work, honesty, humility and inspiring speeches from academicians marked the induction of the new 2020-22 batch of students at the Indian Institute of Management, Ranchi (IIM-R).

On Sunday, IIM-R director professor Shailendra Singh addressed the students on the last day of the workshop organised through Google Meet. He urged to make the best use of what the institute has to offer and respect its pride and sanctity in their future endeavours.

The workshop, which began on Saturday, also witnessed a creative session organized by dance/movement therapy practitioner Dhara Mehra and Froggy Feet — the dance group of IIMR. They trained the students on creative body movements and storytelling through facial expressions.

Indian Institute of Management, Ranchi

On the concluding day, CEO of Trariti Consulting Group, Anup Majumdar, spoke on importance of networking and all that they should learn and get from their MBA journey. An emotional video clip from the alumni fraternity of IIMR was also played.

In an interactive session, professor Gaurav Marathe portrayed the life at IIMR drawing from his own experience. Another session, where the students were introduced to activities based on IIMR principles of hard work, honesty and humility was held. A session on basic and quick stress-relieving exercises concluded the event.

or selection of news under PRB Act, RNI no: JHAENG/2014/55436. Tel no. (0651) 3040225. All rights reserved. Reproduction in whole or in part without written permission of the publisher is prohibited. A/R surchar-rcharge-Rs2.00 for all locations except Jamshedpur and Ranchi.