

STALWART SPEAKS: Former President Pranab Mukherjee addresses the 10th Foundation Day programme of IIM-Ranchi at Aryabhata Auditorium on Saturday. In the presence of over 500 students and faculty, the former President said quality education was the need of the hour. "Even though the country has a large number of educational institutions, quality of education provided by the institutions need to be excellent," he said. He advised students to be job creators instead of job seekers. "In this way you can provide employment opportunities to others as well," he added. Earlier, IIM-Ranchi director Shailendra Singh welcomed the guests. Chairman of the board of directors Praveen Shankar Pandeya also addressed the gathering. Later, students staged a cultural programme. Picture by Prashant Mitra

The Telegraph, 16.12.2018, Pg. 9